

CLASS OF 1831

ALBERT G. STORY

Was born at Cherry Valley, Otsego Co., N. Y., October, 1813. Here he continued to live until 1833, receiving his early mental training in the village of his birth, and Union College. At the age of eighteen he was appointed teller of the Central Bank of Cherry Valley, which position he held till his removal to Little Falls in 1833, where he accepted a similar position in the Herkimer County Bank. In 1835, he was appointed Cashier, and in 1866 became president of the institution, a position which he still occupies. He was married in 1835 to the only daughter of Judge Morse, of Cherry Valley, by whom he has had five children, three of whom survive. During his whole life he has been a stirring practical business man, and his constitution being still vigorous and unenfeebled, and his fine intellect ripened by experience, he does honor to the official position he has so long held. Through life he has accomplished much, and now, dwelling in affluence and honor gained by his industry and talents, he can look upon his past unsullied career with conscious pride and satisfaction.
